

Production Technician / Machine Operator

Job Description:

Runs production equipment and performs manual operations to produce medical devices in a clean room following written instruction(s).

Responsibilities / Duties:

- Operate custom and supplied production equipment.
- Provide training to other employees on new or existing procedures within your skill set.
- Identify non-conforming material.
- Keep accurate production record documentation.
- Input production data into a network database.
- Maintain work area and equipment in a clean and orderly manner.
- Perform additional tasks as assigned by Supervisor, Facilitator, Lead or Manager.
- Perform in-process inspection of materials to assure conformance with specifications.
- Report potential unsafe conditions, injuries and near misses.
- Flexibility with work hours while maintaining a 40 hour work week.

Qualifications / Skills / Experience:

- Ability to learn, understand and implement all policies, practices and procedures.
- Able to perform tasks independently.
- Adhere to all health and safety rules and regulations.
- Basic computer skills using Microsoft Office.
- Experience working in medical device manufacturing cleanroom desired.
- Previous manufacturing experience required.
- Must cooperate and work well on a team to ensure objectives are met.
- Dexterity and knowledge to use hand tools and manipulate materials.
- Be able to lift 50 lbs and able to stand for prolonged periods of time.
- Problem solver / able to troubleshoot.
- Read, write and speak English proficiently.
- Must be able to use a microscope.
- Experience training others desired.

Education Requirements:

- High school diploma / GED or equivalent.